BHIMASHANKAR

Abode of the lord of destruction. The mighty lord shiva...

RALEGAN SIDDHI

An ideal village and bhumi - Bhumi of Indian social activist Anna Hazare.

The World Bank Group has concluded that the village of Ralegan Siddhi was transformed from a highly degraded village ecosystem in a semi-arid region of extreme poverty to one of the richest in the country. Indian social activist Anna Hazare, leader of the village, is accredited in helping in the development of the village. He was awarded the Padma Bhushan for his efforts in establishing this village as a model for others.

NIGHOJ POTHOLES

Best kept secret of Maharashtra...

India is mysterious and so is Maharashtra. What if we tell you that the largest naturally formed potholes in Asia are in Maharashtra that too within 25 km of Karaulbaug Farmhouse. The entire bank of the Kukdi River is turned into moon land of huge potholes. It is a very amazing and interesting place. You just have to see this geological wonder with your eyes to believe it.

MORACHI CHINCHOLI

Peacock- Majestic beauty, grace, and precision and no one can deny it.

This quaint village has been winning hearts for a while now. The rural countryside of Morachi Chincholi, also known as the peacock village is a safe sanctuary for thousands of peacocks. The 350-acre village turns melodious and spectacular as evening approaches. That's when these 2500 peafowls start to show up on the old tamarind trees that you will find everywhere in the village.

PABAL JAIN TIRTH OF

Where every prayer is fulfilled...

This famous Jain temple is located in Pabal. Even though the temple is 300 years old, it is a heavenly one that is regularly renovated. The temple has ornamentation on every square inch. Tirthankars, countless narratives, mythological tales, celestial entities, etc. are intricately carved. It is believed that if you pray for anything, it will undoubtedly come true.
